The Ancient City Wall with many centuries-old buildings, is a place which is full of historical and culture atmosphere. People can have an overall sight of the Jingzhou Ancient City when standing on the wall, feel relaxed and be touched deeply by the trace of the city's history. As for the Jingzhou museum with rich collection of cultural relics, it is the best place to learn about the culture of the city.

There is an ancient wall surrounding our city, which was used to defend the enemy in the war long time ago but has remained nearly complete till now. This tourism spot is the most famous and representative one among others. Another tourist attraction worth visiting should be the Guangong Park, which was built for the memorial of an ancient hero. I am so glad to hear that you are coming to China to give a speech in our university. And it is my great honor to be the volunteer to show you around this city, Beijing.

As your tour guide, I strongly recommend two tourist attractions: The Forbidden City and The Great Wall. Beijing is an ancient city with many old buildings and the past emperors' living place, the Forbidden City is the most typical one. I learned that you show a great interest in China's history, so this place will become your favorite. Besides, in China, there is a saying that he who doesn't reach the Great Wall is not a true man. It would be an unforgettable experience if you have a visit for the scenic spots. I am looking forward to your earlier coming here.

Sincerely yours,
